Fire in Wilmington.—The Journal of Tuesday says:

A fire broke out last night about 10 o'clock, on the wharf above the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, which destroyed a quantity of Resin, Tar, the Salt Works, and Lime belonging, we believe, to Col. Frenidey. We suppose the loss is about $25,000.

Fearful Mortality at Newbern.—The Goldsboro paper of the 18th and 19th gives the following list of deaths that have occurred in Newbern. We suppose there can be but few of the old citizens left. The paper of the 19th contains the following list of deaths which it says is correct:

List of citizens of Newbern, N. C. who have died with Yellow Fever, so far as can be ascertained, from October 12th, 1864.

The following are the additional deaths from Yellow fever in Newbern within the last week. The sad record is running up: Mrs. George Howard, Mr. Heritage, Wm. P. Moore, Jr., Robert Dunn, Mr. J. C. Cole, and many others whose names are not known.

We trust our friend will continue to keep us advised of these casualties.

Charleston.—The Mercury of Monday says:

Since 6 p. m. last Friday evening the enemy has thrown 184 shells at the city, and 35 at Fort Sumter. From 11 30 on Saturday night, until 5:30 Sunday morning, his guns were silent. On Sunday he was firing 300 pounder Parrott shells upon the city, apparently from a new gun.

On Saturday two deserters from Morris Island came over into our lines.

CONFEDERATE STATE NEWS.

New Advertisements.—Notice for sale, by J. R. Towles on ...

Shay, Whitaker & Co.—Cotton States Brass Iron Works. See advertisement.

W. R. ... Co.—Produce and stock auctioneers.

The authorities of Wilmington have passed an ordinance "that all ... shall be permitted to buy such articles as is brought to the market ... the corporate limits for sale, such as vegetables, poultry, eggs, butter, fish, meat, fruit, ... to sell again, or ... under a penalty of one hundred dollars, and on refusing or neglecting to pay ... be placed in the Calaboose for ...

Would it not be well for our city authorities to pass a similar ordinance? Provisions are bought up in the Raleigh market daily, and are sold again to consumers at an advance of 50 to 100 per cent., thus compelling the poor to pay the most extortionate prices.

The Yellow Fever continues to rage at Newbern, Goldsboro and Morehead city, and James Wild, Thos Ramsey, John F. Jones and Henry Clay Jones are reported as among the victims.

Wounded North Carolinians at Fort Delaware.—Capt H C Wheeler and J McLeod Turner; Lieuts H S Mitchell, E W Dancy, Wm Whitaker, D A Coon, A A Catley, J C Cowper.

We learn that a residence in this city has been rented out for twelve months, for four hundred dollars in gold or ... of the present rate of the precious metals, ... to $10,000 or $12,000 in Confederate ... to pay.

Soldiers' Orphan Endowment Fund.—Rev. Dr. Deems has just returned to the city after an absence of about a month, during which time he has preached and lectured at the various places named in the list of appointments announced in this paper. During the trip he has added the following subscriptions to the Orphan Endowment Fund:

Wilson, $20,000; Iredell, 10,000; Alexander, 10,000; Rowan, 2,200; Forsythe, 2,800; Yadkin, 2,500; Orange, 1,000; Stokes, 1,500; Catawba, 1000; New Hanover, 1000; State at large, 800; Crowns ... Cleveland sums from Alleghany and Wayne.

The largest subscription in the State is J. Oscar Martin, of Orange, $7,500.

The following North Carolinians, all officers, were among the returned prisoners that arrived at Richmond on Saturday last, from the North, on parole:

First Lieutenants—H Bingstaff, 43d; R W Arrington, 30th; J D Cuthbertson, 53d; S C Hyman, 31st; M A Lowe, 23d; S E W Pharr, 57th; W R Sanders, 45th; L W Simmons, 8th; P Whitney, 70th.

Second Lieutenants—Thos C Miller, 53d; D Armfield, 1st; E Farley, 28th; J G Jeffreys, 45th; J McCoy and S P Sparrow, 66th.

The large number of men now being sent to camp has brought nearly every branch of business to a stand still, and if we except the sales at auction there is but little doing. Nor do we see how it is to get any better.

The Fever at Wilmington.—The fever seems to be making no headway at Wilmington. The Journal of Tuesday says:

On Sunday we had warm, summerish weather, and men shook their heads ominously. They thought it too warm, and so it was if there had been any Yellow Fever about, but fortunately there had been no new cases and there were no old ones.

Yesterday, Monday, the weather in the morning was cool enough to make fires pleasant and all fears were dispelled. With cool weather on the 18th of October, and the disease wholly disappeared, we think we may all breathe as freely as we choose. The apprehension is removed. The fever could not be propagated in the present atmosphere and at the present temperature, even if there were any here to be propagated, and we can hear of none.

THE YANKEES AT BEAUFORT.

We published a few days ago, the rumor that a fleet of vessels in Beaufort harbor, and that its ultimate destination was Wilmington.—Our informant was a man of high character and we inferred from his conversation that his information came from citizens of Carteret county, and not from deserters or other doubtful characters.

We mention the matter again to express the opinion that there is extremely little about the presence of the fleet at Beaufort, and by still further conjecture that its destination is the mouth of the Cape Fear. The event may be relied with regarding the forts that guard the approaches to the harbor, so that the blockade may be made effectual, but we hardly think they will spare Wilmington, much as they have got from there, should they see that it can be made an easy prey.

We don't write to alarm any one, but we think we may safely suppose that a fleet of sixty-odd vessels in Beaufort harbor that means something more than the relief of the blockading squadron of Wilmington. Three years and over have been employed in constructing the defences of Wilmington, and they may be strong, but they will amount to but little if there be not a sufficient force to man them. We should be glad to be more sanguine than we are about the safety of Wilmington.

We publish in this issue a letter from Senator Hill, of Georgia, to the Assistant Enrolling officer of Troupe county, which states some plain truths that will apply to other States as well as Georgia. Relative to Provost Marshals and their assistants, attendants, &c., Mr. Hill says no such officer is authorized by law, and that neither the President, the Secretary of War nor the Commanding General of an army has the right to appoint one outside the lines of the army; and he declares that all Provost Marshals, their guards, clerks, &c., are illegally away from their commands. This being so we should like to know what authority or power it is that has enrolled every town, city and village in Confederacy with this nuisance. The honest people who are not subject to military service and who have been annoyed by them have a right to an answer to this question, and we hope that some one of the thousands who rule over us all will answer. We commend the letter to the attention of all.

THE YOKE IS GRANT'S ARMY.—Deserters, &c., who come from Grant's army all testify that it has voted for Lincoln almost. The work was done thus: The officers threatened during the last the privates that all who voted the right ticket should have thirty days furlough, and all voted as officers bid 'em.—Examiner.

WHICH WAY?—It is peculiarly the case this year that in the North Carolina election last summer, by the friends of the "Loyal" candidate, only that soldiers were told that if they voted for Holden they should never have any furlough at all. No sensible man will expect any element of the army against the bayonets, in either section, to desert, and most the cheated our own soldiers, detailed men and even citizens out of their votes in August, should not complain that the tyrant Lincoln plays the same game in November.

"THE PACIFICATOR."—We had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. P. Walsh, one of the Editors of this new candidate for public favor, yesterday. The "Pacificator" is published at Augusta, Ga., by Messrs. Walsh & Blome, who, judging from the number before us, will make [illegible] publications of the kind in the Confederacy. As its salutatory indicates, it will [illegible] the constitutional rights of the States and people, and at the same time give a cordial support to the cause of [illegible]. We like its tone and character. The editorials and correspondence which make up the present number, are marked with great ability and breathe a patriotic spirit.

We cheerfully commend the "Pacificator" to a generous public patronage and wish its editors a liberal remuneration for their labors. To the Gods in politics of the people it will be particularly acceptable.

The Richmond Whig says that this is to be a war of extermination. If so what chance will five to seven millions have against twenty-five millions? Rather a gloomy picture if matters not how we view it.

[illegible] this country possible front, and both armies are relieving that rest, which both need. Most of Grant's army, however, is massed together with the long lines of entrenchments that shall protect their rear.
